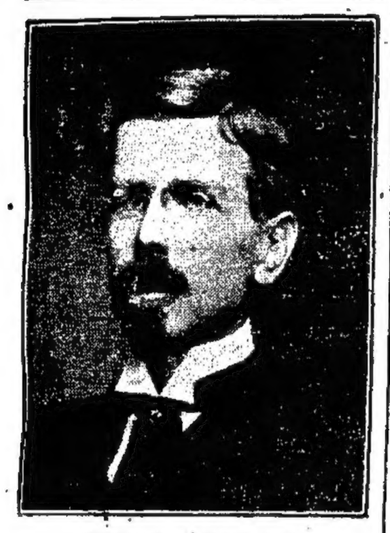
REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

John F. Wentling Well Qualified to Fill the Important Office of Prosecuting Attorney for Westmoreland County.

John F. Wentling, whose portrait appears below, is the Republican candidate for District Attorney. His father, with whom he read law and under whom he was admitted just before his service of one year in the war in the Philippines, has been a well known and eminently succesful lawyer at the Greensburg bar for forty years. Mr. Wentling does no depend on his father's reputation, but he has been in active practice with him father in both the civil and the criminal courts of this county ever since his admission to the bar. The name Wentling stands for Republicanism, because the father and son have always stood for the party; and while the father would never accept a nomination for any office, he has been the adviser of the Republican organization for all these years, and for many years, even up to the last campaign, went out and made addresses to urge the Republicans to do their duty.



JOHN F. WENTLING.

There is no excuse for any Republican to be against Mr. Wentling, the candidate, and there is no excuse for any Democrat to be against him, for the name Wentling has always stood for a square deal to every man and all that is right and just in politics and business

COME OUT, ENJOY RINK.

At the local skating rink tonight there will be a carnival of fun. A genuine masquerade skating bee will be the attraction and everybody is invited to participate in the evening's enjoyment. A handsome pair of nickle plated skates will be given to each lady and gentleman for the most elaborate and most unique costumes, and judging from the way local dealers have been turning out masks there will be some peculiar spectacles on the floor tonight.

Manager Rinehart is planning to make the evening a regular old time fantastic Halloween celebration. The very best of decorum will be maintained during the evening and a general invitation is extended to everybody to come out, get on a pair of skidoo slippers and hike.

CAN'T DIVORCE SICK HUSBAND.

Physical Inability to Support Wife No Cause for Separation.

Judge John D. Shafer, in an opinion handed down in Allegheny county yesterday, refusing a divorce in the case of Emma Graham against Robert Graham, decided that the inability of a husband to support a wife on account of disease is not sufficient grounds for divorce.

In the taking of testimony in the case it developed that the husband is an epileptic and that the wife based her claim for divorce on that fact. Judge Shafer in refusing the decree stated that the evidence indicated that the wife had deserted the husband instead of him deserting her.

HALLOWEEN IS HERE.

According to the Small Boy, But he Must Change His Tactics or the Police May Get Him.

The Halloween pranks have begun We were convinced of that last the morning upon the arrival at the office to find the front windows of our sanctum all covered with chalk marks. Not only is the Independent office made a target of by the small boys but other places of business came in for a share of the "spurt" if we may so term it for all along Donner and Schoonmaker avenues chalk marks are displayed on doors windows and walls.

A few of these "smart alecks" should be caught in the act and be made erase their marks. Such conduct is not in keeping with Halloween celebration and is nothing more or less than malicious mischief.

The police have been notified to arrest any person caught in the act of marking or disfiguring property, and it is needless to say that if the practice keeps up several youngsters will be arraigned before the Mayor and will have to answer for their deporment.

Hooe Guilty.

"Guilty as charged!"

On the very first ballot the jury trying the perjury charge against Clifford Hooe not only pronounced the negro coachman guilty of malicious perjury, but vindicated Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje of a most heinous charge.

BERKEY BOYD OF SCOTTDALE

One of the Republican Nominees for Assembly

Among the nominees for Assembly in the district there is none probably stronger or more agressive for the interests and welfare of Westmoreland county than Berkey H. Boyd, of Scottdale, a young Republican who is in the shoe business there and who has a large friendship over the county. He stands squarely upon the platform of a square deal for every man and his life has been of no uncertain quality. He is solid for the Good roads movement, the two cent railroad fare and all things to better the county. Although interested in politics for years he has never sought a wider field than in his own town where he is serving with distinction on the School Board. He is of the sort of character that is demanded of the times, and it is predicted that he will receive a big majority next Tuesday.

Good Gravy

Is a net profit after planned and painstaking effort. Money acquired without effort is an inheritance. A silk purse cannot be fashioned from a sow's ear nor net profit, the good gravy of business, declared without its toil of toil. The intrinsic vale or pulling effort or an ad is governed by several conditions. A merchant who is a poor buyer of poor taste has made a beginning that advertising cannot offset. If you buy right and then tell an exacting public in a clear, concise way, just as you would over your counter, you are then getting in line for good gravy. DO YOU BUY RIGHT? The quickest, surest way of reaching the ear of all Columbia is through the columns of The Independent.

ARREST OF COAL THIEF CAUSES WILD RUMOR

Wm. Harris, Negro, Was Locked up Last Night, Charged With Coal Stealing.—Rumor Started that He Was Annie Hertrick's Murderer

Another negro coal thief was arrested by the Mercantile Bridge company police last night and was this morning given a hearing before Squire Jas. A. Watkins on a charge of larceny and bound over to court, in the sum of $300 bail. The prisoner who gave his name as Wm. Harrie, was caught in the act of taking the company's coal last night about 8 o'clock and was immediately placed under arrest by Officer McDonough.

He was brought to Monessen and locked up to await a hearing. This morning he plead guilty and begged to be let off, saying that he was a stranger here, having just come to Monessen from Grindstone, that he had no place to go and that he only took a lump or two of coal to keep himself warm during the night.

As the bridge company has been losing so heavily the past few weeks from the raids of these fuel thieves and the evidence being so strong against him, Harris was held for court and in default of bail was taken to the county jail by Officer Wheatley on the 11:15 train.

Soon after Harris had been locked up last night, a rumor was started to the effect that he was the negro who murdered little Annie Hertrick and that he had been arrested by detectives in Pittsburg. The story slowly spread and many gave it credence until by this morning it was reported that a complete confession had been wrung from the prisoner during the night. The story gathered weight with each telling until it was exploded at Squire Watkin's court by Harris being held for court on a charge of larceny.

A GOOD SHOW.

Chauncey-Keiffer Stock Company all Next Week.

Much interest has already been aroused over the success scored in other cities by the Chauncey-Keiffer Company, the reports of which have been coming in to Manager Shuster of the Monessen Opera House, and he has at last succeeded in booking this company for a week's stand in this city, commencing Monday, November 5. The engagement of this company here is sure to be a profitable one, and it can be safely stated that, so far as the company is concerned, its manager, Mr. Fred Chauncey, guarantees a week's production of the best line of plays ever seen here, and given, too, by a strong company, and with artistic interpretation.

Miss Grace Keiffer, the popular star, deserves the many commendable things that have been reported of her, for there is not an actress on stock work today who takes greater care with the interpretation of her respective parts and the dressing of the same than does Miss Keiffer. Her wardrobe is considered one of the most costly worn on the stage today. Many of her gowns are wonderful creations of the dressemaker's art, and Miss Keiffer combines these pretty and essential effects with a still greater requirement—ability to portray many difficult parts in a highly successful manner. Not only has her acting been greatly appreciated, but she has surrounded herself with a supporting company, second to none on the road today.

Specialties between the acts will be given and are far above the ordinary in point of interest and entertainment.

Held Box Social.

A chestnut and box social was held at the home of George Nash, by the young people of the Baptist church last evening. The lunch was put up up in boxes by the ladies of the church and friends, and sold to the bidders and a fine lunch was then spread. The evening was spent in games, singing, music and recitations. About fifty people were present.

Sold Bonds at Par.

The two issues of $80,000 and $50,000 of 4 per cent. Uniontown borough bonds were sold at par to Holmes, Wardrop & Co., of Pittsburg. The $80,000 issue is for the new municipal building and lock-up, and the $50,000 for street improvements.

The Sea Horse.

This fish is found in the Atlantic ocean around the coast of Spain, the south of France, in the Mediterranean and in the Indian ocean. Sea horses are very small and have been found often curled up in oyster shells. The head is much like that of a horse, and the rings around the body and tail resemble those of some caterpillars. The habits of these fishes are singular and interesting. They swim with a waving motion, and frequently wind their tails around the weeds and rushes. They have fins to sustain them in the water, and even in the air. They live on worms, fishes, eggs and substances found in the bottom of the sea.

CATARRH

To prove unquestionably, and beyond any doubt that Catarrh of the nose and throat can be cured, I am furnishing patients through druggists, small free Trial Boxes of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. I do this because I am so certain that Dr Shoop's Catarrh Cure will bring actual substantial help. Nothing so much as so convincing as a physical test of any article of real, genuine merit. But that article must possess true merit, else the test will condemn, rather than advance it. Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure is a snow white, healing antiseptic balm, put up in beautiful nickel capped glass jars at 50c. Such soothing agents as Oil Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, etc., are incorporated into a velvety cream like Petrolatum, imported by Dr. Shoop from Europe. If Catarrh of the nose and throat has extended to the stomach, then by all means also use internally, Dr Shoop's Restorative. Stomach distress, a lack of general strength, bloating, belching, biliousness, bad taste, etc. surely call for Dr Shoop's Restorative.

For uncomplicated catarrh only of the nose and throat nothing else, however, need be used but

Sidney Justus, fruit dealer, of Mentor, Ohio, says: "I was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills of a severe case of kidney trouble of eight or ten years' standing. I suffered the most severe backache and other pains in the region of the kidneys. These were especially severe when stooping to lift anything, and often I could hardly straighten my back. The aching was bad in the daytime, but just as bad at night, and I was always lame in the morning. I was bothered with rheumatic pains and dropsical swelling of the feet. The urinary passages were painful, and the secretions were discolored and so free that often I had to rise at night. I felt tired all day. Half a box served to relieve me, and three boxes effected a permanent cure."

AT THE THEATRE

"As Told In The Hills", the new melodrama of Western Life which is being presented by W.F.Mann at the Monessen Opera House Thursday Nov. 1 is regarded as one of the best dramatic offerings of the season. The play is one that appeals especially to loves of melodrama who have grown tired of those depicting life in the under world of the great cities where crime and debauchery are brought to view and in contrast with that class of play the new production is refreshingly clean and bright all through. The opening scene of the play where the little band of emigrants has been surrounded by hostile Indians and in danger of annihilation is intensely thrilling while the later scenes showing the Arkansas farm have a charming touch of nature that is made especially effective by not being overdrawn. This new and intensely interstieg play will be seen at the opera house tomorrow night.

Beef the Canines

No end of complaint comes from the citizens of the town regarding the amount of stray dogs running at large. Both sexes congregate in the streets and alleys and conduct festivals which are most annoying. A dozen or more get together and their barking and howling out parallel a Halloween carnival. An ordinance was recently passed giving the police power to get rid of a few of the canine tribe, especially those that move and have their being on the streets and alleys most of the time. Why don't the police shoot?

URGES PRECAUTION.

Police Chief Asks Citizens to Place Gates Under Lock and Key.

In view of the fact that last year a number of gates disappeared on Hallowe'en and never were returned, Chief of Police Woolsey ask all citizens whose gates are detachable to remove them early this evening, placing them under lock and key and so be on the safe side. The police will have so much to look after tonight that it will be an utter impossibility for them to detect all overt-acts by mischievous boys.

Sir Walter Scott's First Brief.

Sir Walter Scott had his share of the usual curious experiences shortly after being called to the bar. His first appearance as counsel in a criminal court was at Jedburgh assizes in 1793, when he successfully defended a veteran poacher. "You're a lucky scoundrel," Scott whispered to his client when the verdict was given. "I'm just o' your mind," returned the latter, "and I'll send you a mankin (i. e., a hare) the morn, man." Lockhart, who narrates the incident, omits to add whether the mankin duly reached Scott, but no doubt it did. On another occasion Scott was less successful in his defense of a housebreaker, but the culprit, grateful for his counsel's exertions, gave him, in lieu of the orthodox fee, which he was unable to pay, this piece of advice, to the value of which he (the housebreaker) could professionally attest: First, never to have a large watchdog out of doors, but to keep a little yelping terrier within, and, secondly, to put no trust in nice, clever, gimcrack locks, but to pin his faith to a huge old heavy one with a rusty key. Scott long remembered this incident, and thirty years later, at a judges' dinner at Jedburgh, he recalled it in this impromptu rhyme:

Yelping terrier, rusty key,
Was Walter Scott's best Jeddart fee.
